2010	G-2	Maj Hoover	At 1100, Rittershoffen received 12 rds of 105, again at 1135 about same amount, again about 1215 with 6 rds North of church. At 1630-1700, 6 - 8 rds fell 600-800 yds Northeast of intersection at Neiderbetschdorf. During afternoon area of Rittershoffen received artillery fire on Cn Co pos. Lost one 315th cannon. That is all specific, other sporadic.
2050	Col Shriver	TFWAHL	Would like to leave one Co in Rittershoffen instead of platoon, until attack is completed. There are more enemy troops in Hatten than originally thought and the situation on enemy armor is not clear. OK'd by TFW Cmdr.
2112	Maj Hoover	2nd Bn 315th	Put a Co in running SE from 3rd St in town to 180234 and a Co from North of town to Northeast. 138345. Leaving one Co in town to assist in attack tomorrow. Send patrol to contact G Co and find out where front line of G Co is. Have Cos ready to move right away. Report as soon as you make contact with G Co.
2130	Col Shriver		Advised Tk Capt that he was sending two Companies of the 315th Infantry Regiment to protect them. The 242d does not know the plans. Advise Col Caum of this arrangement. Tank Capt was at 2nd Bn CP, Col Caum is forward at Hatten, and has been out of communication with Regimental CP.
2200	S-3	B Co 304th Engr	Advised of Booby trapped TD South of Hatten. Col Shriver wants situation cleaned up.
2230	Gen Wahl	315th CO	The tank in Eastern part of town is being fired on by TD. Get contact with this tank, it may be our own. Col said he would have the TD Officer check this immediately.
2230	Col Caum	Col Shriver	Col Caum said: I got to the 1st Bn CP, and they are going to have a hell of a time clearing out the town in the dark. There is a tank with an 88 raising hell. We ran into no resistance at all and we made the CP where there are about 30 men. Reynolds is in the East end of town, up to the church. Enemy also in East end of town. Streets are being MG'd by tank and we'll get a bazooka team. Col Shriver said: Stop the clean up of the town tonight. We've got to get that tank first. I have ordered Holton to constitute the line to the right to tie in with your people, and to attack at 0800 if we can't reconstitute that line tonight. On the left TDs are going to work up through so the tanks will be ready to operate. Holton will explain all these orders. Col Caum said: We have not taken any prisoners lately. Last were five, taken about 1 1/2 hours ago. We have Co A on left, one platoon of Co B on right. B Co in the Eastern end of town. Enemy is between them. Col Shriver said: Holton will watch left flank, stop trying to go forward, but get that tank out of there. Col Caum will return to CP after seeing Holton.

1830	Ex 0	Capt Darling	Make thorough search for any 1st Bn men in Rittershoffen and return them to Hatten. Report results to this Hqs.
1830	CO	Ex 0	G Co is 150-200 yds in Hatten. Have not made contact with 1st Bn troops. Town is burning. Reynolds to try to contact Rusteberg. Tanks went around flanks and are behind Hatten. TD in town still OK. Tanks won't go into town until Infantry has cleared town. Patrols trying to clarify what is in front. No resistance on front so far. Trying to get wire to Hatten.
1840	L O Tk Bn	Col Shriver	2nd Bn 315th Inf will relieve fwd elements of 48th Tk Bn. 48th Tk move its units back to original position at Surbourg and Soultz. They are to be prepared for action against enemy again at daylight. Time of their relief subject to approval of Col Shriver. 48th to leave one platoon with you.
1855	S-3	2nd Bn	Contact has been made with 1st Bn. CP is intact. Troops are holed in. No stragglers of 1st Bn in 2nd Bn sector. Capt Burns: CP was intact at 1515. A Co had Nos 9,8,7 pillboxes, gave up 4,5,6.
1855	S-3	3rd Bn CO	Patrols are out tonight. No enemy patrols in creek bed. Controlling B Co platoon. Balance of B Co unaccounted for. Line will be restored tonight.
1920	Capt Watson reports on	3rd Bn situation:	Capt Watson believes that Germans are building up force in wooded area facing Hatten. Tanks came within 200 yds of Cn Co with troop carriers. Tanks forced Cn Co to withdraw. There were about two Cos of Germans coming through (about 300 men). I think Germans are digging in South of Hatten. One AT gun of Keplinger's platoon was abandoned because it was under fire of 88s, and could not be reached in daylight, will try to get it back tonight. Saw some American troops being taken back as prisoners, couldn't say how many. One platoon of B Co joined 3rd Bn believed others were taken prisoner. Capt Watson called 1st Bn for men who were eye-witnesses of penetration and can get information on German troops who may be occupying positions within our lines. Keplinger's platoon knocked out several tanks.
1945	Ex 0	1st Bn	Co A is in position with about 90 men on the line. Capt Burns reports that Co B platoon is back in its original position. B Co lost one pillbox (1) #1. C Co still fighting on edge of town. May have one Officer left. D Co still had one section of MGs and mortars left. Enemy had fifteen personnel carriers in Hatten, at one time. Last German tanks didn't bring Infantry with them.
